ACT AND STATUTES OR MOA

S. Chandra Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Amgaon operates under the statutory regulations of Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University (RTMNU) and is fully subject to the university's legislative acts and statutes. Holding a "non-autonomous status," the college strictly adheres to the prescribed curriculum, evaluation structures, and academic ordinances of its affiliating university while utilizing its parent society's charter to govern local operations.

Governing Documents for S. Chandra Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Amgaon

University Acts, Statutes, Ordinances, and Regulations

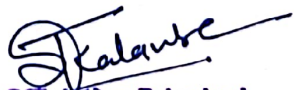

As a non-autonomous affiliated institution, S. Chandra Mahila Mahavidyalaya is legally bound by the administrative rules drafted by the state and university. This includes compliance with the Maharashtra Public Universities Act, 2016, alongside all associated Statutes, Ordinances, and Regulations released by RTMNU. These directives definitively dictate core academic calendars, course structures, evaluation systems, and faculty appointment prerequisites.

Memorandum of Association (MoA)

The structural, financial, and strategic objectives of the college are governed by the overarching Memorandum of Association (MoA) of its parent trust, the Aadiwasi Shaikshanik Sanshodhan Sanstha (ASSS). This fundamental document outlines the executive framework of the management committee, details the deployment of resources, and ensures the college adheres to its core foundational mandate of empowering women in rural and tribal regions through higher education.

Bylaws and Code of Conduct

S. Chandra Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Amgaon maintains internal institutional bylaws and a dedicated Code of Conduct tailored for its students, faculty, and administrative staff. These protocols set clear guidelines on everyday operations, campus safety, academic integrity, attendance mandates, and general campus discipline, ensuring a fair and inclusive environment.
